Big Bombers to Stay

Atom Bomb Is Said Only "Superior Type" of Bomb

By ROBERT RICHARDS
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—(BUP)—The Royal Air Force Air Marshal T. Harris, who has been in the United States and predicted that heavy bombers would remain a vital military force despite the atomic bomb.

The first main reason for sending 100 bombers against a single target, Harris said, he considered the atom bomb as just a "superior type" of bomb, indicating that he doubted it would revolutionize air power as completely as some experts believe.

He said, however, that he believed future bombers would use more direct missiles and fewer of the free-falling type, such as were used for the first part in World War II.

"I will stop off in New York and Washington for a few days," the Air Marshal said, "and then I shall return to the United States. I am in South Africa. He is retiring from the RAF."

Asked if he had seen the diagram of the atom bomb created in Germany and how he felt about it, Harris's face gleamed and his red mustache stiffened.

"I SAW THE DAMAGE," he said, "and I wasn't surprised. We pretty well knew all about that. But how I feel? Well, I feel that the Boche had gotten what he deserved. After all, I was in London during the blitz. You know?"

The Edmonton Separate School Board held its February meeting this week in the board room, St. Mary's high school. The chairman, R. J. Killean, presided. The trustees selected a name for the new school at 81 street, 79 avenue, deciding that it will be known as St. James' school.

CONSIDERATION WAS given to the building program for the year 1946, after which it was decided that the matter would be further dealt with in the course of a week or 19 days when additional financial information is available. A special meeting will be held about the end of February for the purpose of advancing the building program under consideration.

Leave-of-absence was granted to the Rev. Father G. L. Green until Feb. 1, 1946 in order to permit him to visit his home in England.

THE SCHOOL BOARD will co-operate with the Edmonton Education Commission providing the latter body accedes to the request of various organizations in Edmonton that a registry of coming events be established.

The monthly report of the superintendent showed the school enrolment to be 10,000 for the period January being 3,662 as compared with 3,532 a year ago. The report also revealed that the school is saving stamps and certificates to pupils in the amount of $288.50, an amount as compared with $780 a year ago.

CONSIDERATION WAS given to the reports of the school nurse, Dr. J. H. Peters, for the period September-December, 1945 and of the attendance officer, J. Crossland, for the period Jan. 1 to Dec. 31.

The nurse's report showed that 34 pupils of grade 1 and VI had completed physical health examinations during the term. Defect notes were sent out on 94 instances and 228 children were vaccinated and 110 inoculated.

Over 600 eye capsules are being taken at school each year by 2,433 children.

THE ATTENDANCE OFFICER'S report showed that 132 cases had been dealt with, 46 of which were cases of truancy. The percentage of attendance in the schools for the year 1945 was 91.9, a figure which compares favorably with attendance in past years and other school systems.

An authorizing resolution dealing with the issue of the school on June 1, 1946 in the amount of $100,000 for building purposes was passed by the board.

Charlie Barnett Band Achieves Great Success

Charlie Barnett and his orchestra entertained more than 2,500 persons on Tuesday night in the drill hall of the North West Air Command. His swing music and jangle rhythm was much favored by Edmonton dancers.

There are 19 players in the band including two vocalists, Phil Barton and Fran Warren. A member of the orchestra who went over big with the crowd for his singing was "Peanut" Holland.

A special number played on Tuesday night was Ray Noble's "Cherokee." Barnett's recording of this number took the whole crowd by storm and it became so popular that members of the New Year Indian tribe travelled all the way from Oklahoma to the city to make Barnett an honorary citizen. It proved to be just as popular with Edmontonians on Tuesday evening judging from the applause.

THE DANCE was sponsored by the Fort Briscoe Chapter, IOOE, of Calgary, who have arranged for another American "name" band to tour the West. The first in the series to appear was Ted Fila, who was in Edmonton recently.

Part of the proceeds are forwarded to the RCAF benevolent fund.

Head-Hunters of the Borneo Jungle Lopped Down Many Nippon Patrols

OTTAWA, Feb. 20.—(CP)—Capt. R. K. Cheng, a Canadian-born Chinese from Lillooet, B.C., and Vancouver, yesterday told how he and a special Canadian-British-Japanese team of head-hunters of the Borneo jungle, ended, he spent five months in guerrilla warfare and came to the conclusion the head-hunters rate as the best fighters in the world for courage, stamina and resourcefulness.

"THE ODDS WERE 50 to one against us when we first went in, but by the 10th day we had cut down 100 of them. We were only slightly outnumbered," said Capt. Cheng. The mixed jungle patrol never struck unless they were sure they would achieve at least 90 per cent. casualties before they would withdraw.

Capt. Cheng, a graduate of McGill University, was in the directorate of electrical communication and design in Ottawa for two years before taking command and guerrilla training for the special assignment in the Orient.

Quiet Returns To Labor Front In United States

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—(AP)—After weeks of turbulence, all appeared to be quiet in the labor front today.

IN THE BACKGROUND, the number of continuing labor disputes dropped to around 500 in the last week. The number of strikes, however, was responsible for the reduction in the ranks of the idle.

As federal officials worked to end other major strikes and expected conciliation in the threatened country-wide walkout of 220,000 telephone workers, the labor department started a drive to "push for settlement" of all current work stoppages and get the reconversion program back into high gear.

THE ACTION OF THE National Federation of Telephone Workers in Memphis, Tenn., authorizing its executive board to call a strike in support of demands for higher wages was followed by President Joseph A. Beirer's statement that the walkout would not be called until all avenues of peaceful negotiations are closed.

A survey disclosed that nearly 22,000 CIO workers of "day after" had not returned to their jobs.

In Chicago, the National Harvester Council of the CIO Farm Equipment and Metal Workers' Union accepted a fact-finding board's recommendations in the dispute which has caused a month-long strike by 30,000 workers in 10 International Harvester Company plants.

THE COUNTRY'S longest strike, the 92-day old work stoppage of 175,000 CIO employees in General Motors plants, continuing and there was nothing to indicate principals were near agreement on main issues being discussed in Detroit meetings.

A general strike by American Federation of Labor unions remained in effect in Lancaster, Pa. today as efforts were made by a federal conciliator to end the 15-day old transit strike over higher wages.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS— Secretive Husband A Trial to Anxious Wife

There Are Many Reasons Why Men Do Not Confide Their Business and Financial Affairs With Their Wives; Should Not Prod Them With Questions

DEAR MISS DIX: Why do men hate to confide in their wives? Why do they object to answering questions? I have been married for many years. I love my husband very much and am very happy, but I have never been able to understand him. He absolutely refuses to discuss his business or financial affairs with me. Why is this?

ANSWER: If you had been married to your husband for a hundred years you still couldn't understand him, because no woman has ever yet understood a man, nor has any man ever understood a woman. God made them that way so that they would always keep the other guessing and so keep each other interested.

THERE are many reasons why men do not confide their business and financial affairs with their wives. Sometimes it is because as men are naturally secretive and cautious.

ANSWER: No, he is not. Just as girls are just as anxious to love and be loved as they are just as foolish about the kind of men they throw their hearts away upon, and they make just as idiotic marriages.

THE MODERN GIRL is accused of being hard-boiled, but it doesn't keep her from marrying a boy who isn't making enough to support her. It doesn't keep her from marrying one that she knows will be a drunkard and a shiftless ne'er-do-well. And it doesn't keep her from going to work and helping to support the man she loves if he is down-and-out or sick and helpless. And if this isn't true love, I don't know what is.

It is a mighty lonesome thing without love in it, so it certainly wouldn't advise you to exclude from your life.

DEAR MISS DIX: I am 17 years old and I think I know how to be married. However, every time I start out with either my girl or my friends, my mother and father say to me: "Don't do this," or "Don't do that." I am terribly tired of it all. What shall I do about it?

ANSWER: Absolutely nothing. Parents have the right to discipline and they can't break themselves of it. They don't know that their attitude simply infuriate you and do no good, but they are under a compulsion to say them.

Why parents do this, goodness only knows. It is just because they are not-minded, so you will have to reconcile yourself to it. Your father's and mother's don't are one of the reasons why girls love home as a prison and as a duty.

TORONTO, Feb. 19.—(CP)—An objective of $1,800,000, the United Church of Canada raised $2,971,380 for its missionary and maintenance fund in a Dominion-wide campaign during 1945. Rev. Donald C. Ridgway, fund secretary, reported yesterday at a meeting of the Toronto Centre Presbytery, the presbytery that an archives committee is planning to compile a record of all men and women of the church who gave their lives in the Second World War. He added that one-third of the total casualties in the RCAF were United Church members.

NATURE INTENDED that our own muscles should support and shape us. If we keep them really in fine shape and tone there would be no need for girdles. However, our muscles demand maintenance and most of us do not give them the care they need.

Of course, a girdle helps make an unattractive figure more attractive by pushing the flesh into happier contours. For instance, the old-fashioned heavily-stayed corset was very popular. A few years ago medical authorities made the effect of these on women. It was found that the chest was flattened and the breathing was limited. Sometimes the liver was misplaced and the abdominal wall became weak because it no longer did its own work. Tight undergarments, naturally, caused the muscles to become lax and weak.

IT IS A RARE WOMAN, however, who keeps her figure in perfect condition. Undergarments should be chosen that support and strengthen the muscles, and few women have perfect measurements.

An Exhibition of "SMALL HOME" MODELS

Will Be Displayed on the Second
Floor at EATON'S, for a Limited Time!

Have you been dreaming of a new home? Longing perhaps for years... hopefully, but not TOO expectantly, for a home that fulfills all your requirements as to beauty, comfort... practicality? To the many people who have been thus looking forward to the time when their dream-homes could become actuality, this fascinating display of "Small Model" Homes will come as a revelation... and an inspiration! Whether you plan to own a modest bungalow or a spacious colonial home designed for the most generous measure of gracious living, this display of twenty-one perfectly executed scale models probably shows exactly what you have in mind. Celebrated Canadian architects, working in conjunction with the NATIONAL HOUSING ADMINISTRATION, designed these homes.

Each is a splendid example of what ultra-modern thought has accomplished in making home, YOUR home, a truly livable and lovable place. These miniature models suggest exteriors which will guide you in your planning. Each has some striking feature which may fit in with your present ideas... or direct them in a new, more satisfactory direction.

See this delightful exhibit commencing Thursday, Feb. 21st. Over 30 miniature homes covering the entire field of modern home design, and complete in every exterior detail, even to the landscaping, done with remarkable artistry and effectiveness.

The National Housing Act was passed in order to encourage and assist the Canadian who wishes to own his home. Information pamphlets, along with the National Housing booklet, will be available for visitors.
